Knowledge phase; small question 1: What are the 8 Teach like a Champion Techniques?

Watch the video link below a try to decide which TLAC technique from the list below it is modelling
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PARflwF215k>

- 1. Begin with the end- Small questions are shared at the beginning of each lesson.
- 2. SLANT- Sit up, Listen, Ask and answer questions, Nod your head to confirm understanding, Track the reader at the beginning of the knowledge phase
- 3. Cold calling- No hands up teacher questioning, targeting individual students by name first.

4. Wait time- Time given for students to plan their answers to questions and work with peers before the teacher cold calls.

5. Call and response- Repeating key knowledge as a class as directed by the teacher

6a. WAGOLL- Teacher shows the students what a good one looks like and questions them.

6b. I do, We do, You do- Teacher models a good response, then does one together with the class, then students try without support

7. Show call- Students read their work out or it is presented to the class for assessment and discussion

8. At Bats – Repetition, re-call and improving work until it is perfect!

Consolidation phase:

Discuss with your peers and plot the number of the technique in order of importance in the below diamond nine diagram, be prepared to justify your decision

Knowledge phase; small question 2: How will you get feedback on your learning?

There is a 4 point feedback rule as follows:

- Teacher will circulate the room for live feedback
- Students will regularly self-assess the testing phase
- Students will regularly prove it and improve it (what grade and why)
- Teachers will assess your work twice half termly (minimum) and use a WCOS to provide quality personal feedback so that students can narrow their gaps in knowledge, as featured below.
