

Calendar	Big Question/Theme	Small Questions	Assessment Opportunities and Criteria. Teacher feedback point (TFP)	Homework
Autumn 1 Year 7 Topic 7E Solutions and Mixtures	How can different mixtures be separated?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What makes a good method?</li> <li>2. How can equipment be drawn scientifically?</li> <li>3. What is filtration?</li> <li>4. What is a mixture?</li> <li>5. How are different mixtures classified?</li> <li>6. What is dryness? How can it be achieved safely?</li> <li>7. What is evaporation?</li> <li>8. What are the steps involved in separating rock salt?</li> <li>9. How chromatography can be used to identify a substance?</li> <li>10. How does chromatography work?</li> <li>11. What is desalination?</li> <li>12. How can pure water be made from salt water?</li> </ol>	Each Ks3 module is followed by a common assessed task (CAT). This is comprised of a mixture of exam questions based on that topic. Exam questions are obtained from ExamPro. Teacher will mark exam questions and provide a class feedback sheet. Students will NTG by responding to marking. Optional: there is an assessment for each topic in the Pearsons SOW.	Homework is revision of the topic's knowledge organiser. Students will be quizzed weekly /10 Student results will be recorded on a tracking sheet.

Calendar	Big Question/Theme	Small Questions	Assessment Opportunities and Criteria. Teacher feedback point (TFP)	Homework
Autumn 1 Year 7  Topic 7A Cells, tissues and organ systems	How do living things work?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What does it mean to be alive?</li> <li>2. Which organs do what, and where?</li> <li>3. Which organs do what, and where? (in plants)</li> <li>4. What are organs made of?</li> <li>5. How do we use microscopes?</li> <li>6. What are animal and plant cells made of?</li> <li>7. How do organs work together in animals and plants?</li> </ol>	Each Ks3 module is followed by a common assessed task (CAT). This is comprised of a mixture of exam questions based on that topic. Exam questions are obtained from ExamPro. Teacher will mark exam questions and provide a class feedback sheet. Students will NTG by responding to marking. Optional: there is an assessment for each topic in the Pearsons SOW.	Homework is revision of the topic's knowledge organiser. Students will be quizzed weekly /10 Student results will be recorded on a tracking sheet.