

Understanding Your Child's Emotions Workshop

Emotional Health is how we think and feel. It is about our sense of well-being, our ability to cope with life events and how we acknowledge our own emotions as well as those of others.

We know that life is not normal at the moment due to Coronavirus however we recognise that parents/carers still need information to support their child. The School Nursing Service offer free virtual emotional health and wellbeing workshops to parents and carers of children aged 4-19 years. These sessions will be offered via Microsoft Teams which is a safe application used by the NHS

This workshop explores:

- ❖ Understanding emotions in children and teenagers
- ❖ What causes emotional health problems
