

		3) How do relationships affect the nature of the family? What is childhood and how has that affected the family? What are conjugal roles and how do they affect the nature of the family? What role do grandparents have and how does this affect the family?	C1 – Practice question EOT 1 x 35 mark question Timed conditions.
Spring 1	Education Understand how education is different for people of different genders, class and ethnicity and how this impacts on attainment. Also understand the function and role of education in society	1) How does social class affect a person’s education? What class based external factors to school affect their education? What class based internal school factors affect a person’s education? 2) How does ethnicity affect a person’s education? What ethnicity based external factors to school affect their education? What ethnicity based internal school factors affect a person’s education?	C1 – Practice questions Mid term: 2 x 15 mark questions Timed conditions. C1 – Practice question EOT 1 x 35 mark question Timed conditions.
Spring 2	Education continued.	3) How does gender affect a person’s education? What gender based external factors to school affect their education? What gender based internal school factors affect a person’s education? How does gender affect subject choice? 4) How does sociological theory view education in society? How do each of the following theories view the role of education in society? Functionalist, Marxist, Feminist, Interactionist, New Right, Postmodern How can each of these views be evaluated?	C1 – Practice questions Mid term: 2 x 15 mark questions Timed conditions. C1 – Practice question EOT 1 x 35 mark question Timed conditions.

Summer 1	Research Methods Understand how sociologists conduct research, what options are available to them and why they choose a particular approach and method.	1) How does a sociologist design a piece of research? What are the different types of data that can be collected? What theoretical view should a sociologist take? Interpretivism or Positivism? 2) How do sociologists choose who to research? What is a sampling frame? What are the different sampling techniques? What is a pilot study?	C2 – Practice questions Mid term 2 x 5 mark question 1 x 20 mark question Timed conditions C2 – Practice questions EOT 1 x 30 mark question. Timed conditions
Summer 2	Research Method (2)	3) What are the different methods a sociologist can take? What are the following research methods: Surveys, Questionnaires, Interviews, Observations, Case studies, Longitudinal studies, Ethnography, Experiments? In what ways can we evaluate pieces of research? What are the advantages and disadvantages of each of these methods?	C1 – Mock Paper 1 120 marks C2 Mock Paper 2 60 marks