

Sixth Form Open Evening

Philosophy & Ethics

"There is within every soul a thirst for happiness and meaning."
~ Thomas Aquinas

What do we believe?

Why am I here?

Is there a right
way to live?

Does God exist?

Is there such a thing as right
and wrong?

Why is there Evil and Suffering in the world?

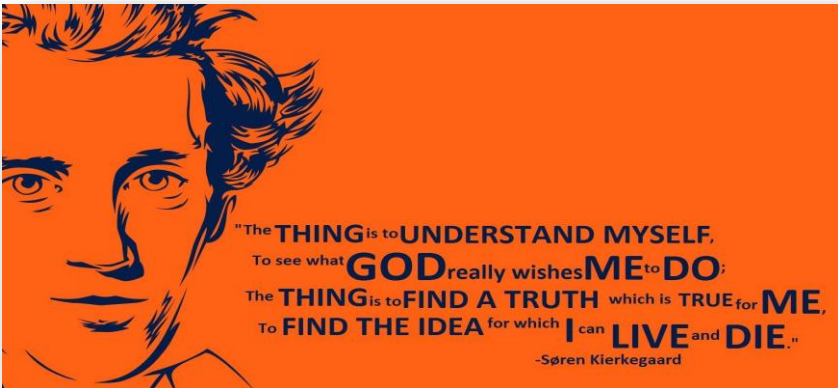

What happens to us when we die?

Do we have a conscience?

What is Philosophy & Ethics?

- Philosophy literally means 'the love of wisdom' and Ethics is the study of morality.
- To discover what it means to be human; to ask the biggest questions a person can ask ...
 - Why are we here?
 - Does our life have purpose?
 - How should we live?

Why study Philosophy & Ethics?

- Offers an interesting and intellectually challenging A level.
- Students will consider questions and issues that will concern them throughout their adult life.
- Develops a variety of skills including discussion and debate, logical arguments and critical evaluation.
- All these skills are transferable.
- One of the most rapidly growing subjects at GCSE and A level in last 10 years*

 The Times/the Guardian*

How is the course structured?

Philosophy
-Component 1-

Ethics
-Component 2-

Christianity
(Development of Religious Thoughts)
-Component 3-

How are students assessed?

- All components are assessed by written examination.
- 100% Exam (no coursework).
- 3 x 2hr exams.
- Each exam will comprise of 3 written essays.
- All students will be examined on the following papers.
 - Philosophy of Religion paper
 - Religion and Ethics paper
 - Developments in Religious Thoughts paper (Christianity)

Is there anything else I need to know?

- Students often study Philosophy and Ethics who have:
 - Religious studies
 - Inquisitive nature
 - Enjoyed Religious Education at GCSE
- Philosophy and Ethics is highly regarded by universities and employers.
- Graduates in Philosophy & Ethics enter a wide range of careers. E.g. Broadcast, Legal, Journalism, Education, Politics, Medicine, Human Resources, Police and Social work.

What will help you in Philosophy?

Thirst to discover

Independent

Mature

Curious

Passionate

WHAT DOES A
PHILOSOPHY
STUDENT
LOOK LIKE?

Questioner

Reflective

Diligent

Committed

For further queries email: pthomas@stfrancis.cc

Resources

